Presbyterian Medical Services is a Health Center Program grantee under 42 U.S.C. 254b and a deemed Public Health Service employee under 42 U.S.C. 233(g)-(n).

We accept Medicare, Medicaid, and most insurance plans. We have other financial options, including a sliding fee scale. For additional information, please refer to our financial responsibility form included in this packet, or speak with one of our Customer Access Representatives in our reception area.

Consumer Rights and Responsibilities

Consumers have rights and responsibilities for their care.

Consumer Rights

Presbyterian Medical Services (PMS) believes consumers or their legal guardians have the right to:

- 1. Be treated fairly, with dignity, and with respect for their right to privacy.
- 2. To receive all health care services in a caring, nonjudgmental way.
- 3. For those with communication-related disabilities receive any information in a format that meets your needs.
- 4. Get services in a way that respects your culture, including having an interpreter if you do not speak
- 5. Take part in making all health care decisions. This includes making treatment plans. You also have the right to refuse treatment.
- 6. Decide on treatment after being informed of your options.
- 7. Choose someone to help with care choices.
- 8. Make a complaint about your care or decisions about your care you are receiving without worrying about retaliation.

- 9. Make wishes known through advance directives, a legal document allowing you to direct your care if you cannot make or communicate decisions about your care or choose people you do or do not want to make choices on your behalf if you are ill.
- 10. Have access to medical records based on federal and New Mexico laws and rules, and to restrict access to the records based on those laws and rules.
- 11. Get information about PMS:
 - o Its services.
 - How to access services.
 - Other information to help with your PMS health care needs.
- 12. Be free from unlawful restraint or seclusion based on New Mexico and Federal law.

Consumer Responsibilities

PMS asks that every consumer or their legal guardian has the responsibility to:

- 1. To treat service providers with dignity and respect.
- 2. Provide, when able, clearly your information that PMS providers need to serve you.
- 3. Understand your health issues and take part in planning treatment goals.
- 4. Follow the plans for care that you have agreed on.
- 5. Let provider know if changes to your care are needed.
- 6. To notify provider if medications change by another practitioner.
- 7. To receive a medication refill, call 1 week prior to running out and expect up to 3-business days after request is made.
- 8. Make sure PMS has your current contact information so we can reach you if necessary.
- 9. To provide a safe environment for care to be provided when such care is being provided in your provide home.
- 10. To attend appointments sober.
- 11. No weapons are allowed on the premises.eep, change or cancel appointments instead of not showing up.

Advance Directives

In New Mexico, the Uniform Health-Care Decisions Act enables an individual to prepare an Advance Health-Care Directive, which is a written document that lets you give instructions about your own health care and/or name someone else (an agent) to make health care decisions for you if you become unable to make your own decisions. You have to be 18 or older to create an advance directive.

The Mental Health Care Treatment Decisions Act is the New Mexico law that allows written instructions for psychiatric treatment if you are unable to make or communicate your instructions. In New Mexico, "an advance directive for mental health treatment" is called a PAD or Psychiatric Advance Directive.

These documents are called Advance Directives because they are filled out by you and signed in advance so that in the future, your doctor and other health care providers know what your wishes are concerning medical or psychiatric treatment. Advance directives only take effect when you can no longer make your own health care decisions. As long as you are able to make your own decisions and give informed consent for your own care, your health care providers will rely on YOU and NOT your advance directives.

Before making this decision or writing down your instructions, you should talk to those people closest to you and who are concerned about your care and feelings. Discuss them with your family, your doctor, friends and other appropriate people such as someone at your church or your lawyer.

ADVANCE DIRECTIVE IS OPTIONAL It is entirely up to you whether you want to prepare an Advance Directive, but if questions arise about the kind of medical or psychiatric treatment that you want or do not want, they will help solve these important issues. If you have not completed an Advanced Directive or told your doctor whom you want to make your health care decisions, New Mexico law allows these people, in the following order, to make your health care decisions (if these people are reasonably available):

- 1. spouse
- 2. significant other
- 3. adult child
- 4. parent
- 5. adult brother or sister
- 6. grandparent
- 7. close friend

New Mexico does not require you to fill out a specific Advance Directive form, you may write out your wishes. However, it does requires three things: 1) you must sign the Advanced Directive, 2) a PAD must be witnessed and if you wish, have it notarized, and 3) if you appoint an agent have the agent sign that he or she is accepting the appointment. That may be done on a separate piece of paper, but it may be helpful to have the acceptance a part of your Advanced Directive.

We have some samples available of Advanced Directive forms. If you are interested please ask your doctor or provider for a copy. You have the right to revoke (cancel) or replace an Advanced Directive at any time. If you complete an Advanced Directive, give copies of the signed form to your health care providers and institutions, any health care agents you name, and your family and friends.

Any complaints concerning noncompliance with Advance Directive requirements may be directed to the Presbyterian Medical Services Quality Management Department, and /or the state survey and certification agency, the New Mexico Department of Health.
